

©Jason deCaires Taylor. MUSA. www.underwatersculpture.com

Artificial reefs are versatile tools for coastal management and environmental protection.

Our goal is to develop sustainable models using innovative artificial reefs for tourism and complementary activities.

The project will last till August 2018 and is managed by the EASME under EU Maritime and Fisheries Fund.

Please check our website for programmed workshops and practical tools for stakeholders www.artreefs.eu

@ArtReefs

ArtReefs group

ArtReefs project has received funding from the European Union under grant agreement No. EASME/EMFF/2015/1.2.1.7/03/SI2.735917

ARTREEFS
Innovative tools for coastal tourism

Build a macro-regional Public-Private Partnerships for the promotion of multi-purpose Artificial Reefs and Sustainable Tourism in the Mediterranean and Black Sea

- ▶ Highly innovative
- ▶ Unites various Integrated Maritime Policy stakeholders
- ▶ Offers competitive new business opportunities
- ▶ Eco designed and based on ecological engineering with the objective to promote Good Environmental Status
- ▶ Provides sustainable solutions that can be transferred to other regions/ countries

